UXMAL, YAXCOPOIL Y CENOTE

Our first stop is Hacienda Yaxcopoil, founded in the 17th century. Its name means “place of the green poplar trees.”

Our next stop is the archaeological site of Uxmal, known as the “Thrice-Built City,” Uxmal is renowned for its distinctive Puuc architectural style, characterized by elaborate ornamentation and masks representing Chaac, the Maya rain god, as well as its outstanding historical and cultural significance.

To conclude this wonderful experience, we will visit a cenote, where you can cool off and enjoy a refreshing swim in its crystal-clear waters
